

Southwest Gas EnergySmart Education Program

Free and informative Southwest Gas EnergySmart Education Program reinforces energy concepts from curriculum and teaches lifelong lessons on energy and water efficiency. The program also provides an engaging assembly filled with experiments and educational activities empowering participants to be leaders in energy efficiency.

Calling 4th Grade Teachers in Northern Nevada!

Receive free Take Action Kits, educational activities, teacher guide with activities, and teachers have an opportunity to earn a $50 gift card.

- Each student will be given an Energy Efficiency Education Program booklet that can be completed at home with their families
- Teachers who return 80% or more of their student's worksheets will be given a $50 Amazon gift card for their hard work
- This program will be offered April – May 2019 and student worksheets must be submitted by June 7th
- Register with Science Alive team at: 775-673-7450, Brooke.Stathis@dri.edu or at our website;

https://desertresearchinstitute.formstack.com/forms/3ep_teacher_registration

About Energy Smart

Science Alive works to improve STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics) education, prepare students for STEM careers, reduce energy usage among teachers, students, and schools, and reduce the environmental impacts from energy and water consumption. The Science Alive program also provides teacher trainings, Green Boxes, school support, fieldtrips, and a speaker series for pre-K-12 educators with an emphasis on energy, energy efficiency and related topics.

Learn more at: <https://sciencealive.dri.edu/energysmart>